CONTENTS—1863.

JANUARY.

What shall the Journal be? - - - - 1
Reply to "Hints for the Times," - - - 3
"How shall we teach Politeness?" - - 9
Literary Curiosity—School Manners, - - 11
Payson, Dunton and Scribner's Method of Penmanship, - - - - - - 13
Study of Nature—Object Teaching, - - 18
School Government, - - - - - 20
The Influence of Public Opinion on Schools, 22
Official Department, - - - - - 24
Miscellaneous Exercises, - - - - 25
Local and Personal, - - - - - 26
Book Notices, - - - - - - - 30

FEBRUARY.

Why don't you Write for the Journal? - 33
About Pictures, - - - - - - 35
Teachers ought to Read more, - - - 38
Object Lessons, - - - - - - 42
Hard Work vs. Machinery, - - - - 46
Normal School, - - - - - - 48
Fitness for Work, - - - - - - 52
A Suggestion, - - - - - - - 53
My School—Memories of School Days, - 54
The Gulf Stream, - - - - - - 55
Low Reading, - - - - - - - 57
Official Department, - - - - - 59
Miscellany, - - - - - - - 60
Miscellaneous Exercises—Book Notices, 62

MARCH.

The Study of Mathematics, - - - - 65
A Wise Eclecticism in Teaching, - - 68
Make Study Interesting, - - - - 70
Repetition, - - - - - - - 72
Arnold on Punishment—Estimate of Teachers, - - - - - - - 73
Some Thoughts about Teaching Geography, 75

Resident Editor's Department.

School Discipline, - - - - - - 78
Composition, - - - - - - - 81
Love of Truth, - - - - - - - 83
Words in Earnest, - - - - - - 85
Official Department, - - - - - 92
Miscellaneous Exercises, - - - - 93
Dwight Ely, - - - - - - - 94
Normal School, - - - - - - - 95
To Correspondents, - - - - - 96

APRIL.

Make Your Scholars Mind, - - - - 97
Hints about Spelling, - - - - - 100
What I Think, - - - - - - - 103
Time-serving Teachers, - - - - - 104

Resident Editor's Department.

Habits, - - - - - - - - - 107
Words in Earnest.—No. 2, - - - - 108
Common Mistakes in Grammar, - - - 111
A Shelf in my Library, - - - - - 113
A Few Facts from the Census for 1860, 117
Errors in Speaking, - - - - - 119
For General Exercise, - - - - - 120
Local and Personal, - - - - - 121
Book Notices, - - - - - - - 123

MAY.

The Schools and School Teachers of Connecticut, - - - - - - - - 129

Resident Editor's Department.

School Government, - - - - - - 134
Self-Examination, - - - - - - 142
A Love of Reading, - - - - - - 144
A Look at the Past, - - - - - - 146
Turpentine and Tar, - - - - - - 149
The Teacher's True Aims, - - - - 150
For General Exercise, - - - - - 153
Local and Personal, - - - - - 154

JUNE.

What Can I Do? - - - - - - - 161
Mischief in School, - - - - - - 164
The Study of the English Classics, - - 166
Reading, - - - - - - - - - 168
Female Teachers, - - - - - - - 168
The True Woman, - - - - - - - 171
"Look before you Leap," - - - - - 174
The Wind, - - - - - - - - 175
Elementary Instruction, - - - - 177
Official Department, - - - - - 179
Relation of Exercise to Health, - - - 180
Faithful To-Day, - - - - - - 183
For General Exercise, - - - - - 184
Local and Personal, - - - - - 186
Book Notices, - - - - - - - 188

JULY.

What constitutes Good Reading, - - - 193
Memorizing, - - - - - - - - 198
Farmer's Boys, - - - - - - - 200
The Tools Great Men Work with, - - - 203

Resident Editor's Department.

How shall we Teach Politeness, - - - 204
Words of Encouragement, - - - - 208
Staying after School, - - - - - 210
A Love of Writing, - - - - - - 212
State Normal School, - - - - - 214
An Interesting Exercise, - - - - 216
Miscellany, - - - - - - - - 217
Book Notices, - - - - - - - 223

SEPTEMBER.

Review your Work,	225
The Examination of Teachers,	227
My School,	229
District Committees,	231
Mental Arithmetic,	233
Physical Training,	236
The Positions of our Pupils,	237
The Little Teacher,	240
Drawing in Primary Schools,	241
Neatness—How Regarded by Children,	243
A Word to the Teachers of Little Ones,	243
Normal School Anniversary,	244
Taste,	248
Local and Personal,	251
School Manners,	255
Book Notices,	255

OCTOBER.

Penmanship,	257
School Supervision,	263
How to Interest Pupils in their Studies,	266
Study the Character of your Pupils,	267
Defective Education,	269
Don't Help Too Much,	270
Dull Scholars,	271
A New School Year,	273
What is Education?	274
Official Department,	277
Military Terms,	280
Local and Personal,	281
Book Notice,	283

NOVEMBER.

Educational Meetings,	289
National Teacher's Association,	293
A Short Story for Teachers,	298
Sympathy in School,	300
Whispering,	302
Perfect Lessons—Ask Questions,	303
Official Department,	304
Don't Talk Too Much,	305
Drawing,	306
Don't Fret—Bide your Time,	308
Schoolmasters as they Were—Punctuality of Washington,	309
Finish thy Work,	310
Some of the Elements of Good Teaching,	311
Military Terms,	313
Local and Personal,	315

DECEMBER.

State Teachers' Association,	321
Some of the Elements of Good Teaching,	326
Never Give Up,	330
Female Teachers and their Pay,	333
To the Departed Year,	335
Dull Scholars,	336
Hours of Study,	337
Alliteration,	338
Normal School Association,	341
State Association,	341
E. R. Keyes,	342
Local and Personal,	344
Book Notices,	346